“When God has something to say it’s going to be _____. It’s going to be _____ _____ than what you want to say.” See 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Does this book last forever? Are these words in the Bible? Are we reading them now if Jude just presses on and does what he originally wanted to do?

Proverbs 16:9: “A man’s mind plans his way [as he journeys through life], But the LORD directs his steps and establishes them.”

2. The same faith that Jude is talking about has been entrusted to us in several ways:

• by _____ through _____

• through the _____ - disciples, apostles, etc.

• the _____ that came _____.

• from _____ through revelations of the _____ .

3. We are the _____ of the faith. We have to be watchful. See 1 Peter 5:8-9;

Acts 20:28-31

4. Verse 4 - ...certain men had crept in unawares.

The Greek word for this is _____. As William Barclay puts it:

“This word (pareisdyno) is used to denote the seductive words of a clever pleader seeping gradually into the mind of a judge and jury. It is used of an outlaw slipping secretly back into the country from which he has been expelled. It is used of the slow and subtle entry of innovations into the life of the state, which in the end undermine and break down the ancestral laws. It always indicates a stealthy insinuation of something evil into a society or situation.”

What dangers had crept in?

• They twist the _____ into a license for immorality.

Aselgia - an adjective that describes the type of person who doesn't care who sees them sin.

See Luke 17:3; Acts 3:19; 2 Peter 3:9; Matthew 7:21-23
